Welcome to Walsh's Auto Cairns Speedway for Bikecraft round 5! Tonight we welcome back all classes but its the formula 500s who headline tonight with a strong field of mainly Cairns and Townsville drivers all set to battle and give the crowd a thrill with that collective high pitch whirring of these engines at full throttle once the green flag drops!

A big thanks to Bikecraft Cairns who are new on board in 2024 and are part of the Cairns Cars group. Bikecraft recently added premium italian brand Ducati and showroom on Mulgrave Rd to their already established Bikecraft store on Lyons st with Triumph showroom. They are a dedicated centre for superbike sales, performance tuning, modifications and customisations, parts, service and repair and well worth checking out! They have even brought a few bikes tonight on display so be sure to have a chat with them.

For the Sprint Cars NQ33 John Magro is coming off a huge first feature win in Mareeba and looking for the top step of the podium again. We welcome NQ60 Mick Andrews to the class for his first action in Cairns in a Sprint Car. The Junior Sedans continue to show up in big numbers with promising signs for the future, the Wingless continue to get valuable experience under the belt, the Formula 400s are back again along with local Modified Sedans and the current Super Street Sedans Q1 Dan Pitchfork will lead their class out front. We'll see you at the checkered flag!

Cairns Speedway Club President Rob Goodwin.
