PETER ROGGENKAMP

MEMORIAL

Welcome to Walsh's Auto Cairns Speedway for our season opener and what a cracker this is set to be with the Modified Sedans Northern Nationals!

The defending champion RK26 Mason Cameron, who won in 2024 right at the finish line ahead of CN21 Johnno Collins, has his work cut out for him with heavy hitters CR9 Joel Berkley and AUS#1 Nathan Macdonald hungry for a slice of the $5,000 to win which prize means we are in for a blockbuster double header.

Our support classes have big numbers also with Friday night featuring Wingless, Junior Sedans and Super Street Sedans with Saturday night adding F500s and Sprintcars.

There's been some big changes around the speedbowl with the removal of the concrete guttering which widens the track so it opens up varying driving lines which should result in more passing. We have removed the unsightly fences around the base of the light poles and built up the grass areas for better viewing. We have 2 TVs at the bar displaying the live feed for major events like this one. There's a lot of hard work behind the scenes and I thank all of those involved who serve our club donating their time and expertise so we can continue to provide a great experience for fans and competitors.

Thank you to Peter Roggenkamp Memorial for supporting this event as we honour a man who not only raced but served the club for many years and was well known in speedway circles. Thanks to Star 102.7 for supporting community sport and helping us promote the speedway! The 2025 season is here, let's go racing!

Cairns Speedway Club President Rob Goodwin.
